

Industrial Rehabilitation Services

Type of Test Service	Description	Price
On-site Job Coaching/ Work Transition Assessment	An effective way to ensure “high-risk,” previously injured employees return to work safely after rehabilitation or modified duty. This on-site, one-to-one visit will include instructions on safe/proper lifting mechanics, alternative work methods and job specific stretching and exercise.	$80.00/ hour
On-site Functional Ergonomic Job Analysis	Identification of work risk factors as potential contributors to musculoskeletal injuries. Specific recommendations through weights, measures, ergonomic tool utilization and alternative design and work flow patterns. Recommendations will include both ergonomic changes and implementation of administrative controls. Affirms to EEOC, ADA and OSHA.	$80.00/ hour
Group, On-site Injury Prevention/ Correct Work Method/ Body Mechanics Training and Education	The training sessions will instruct employees on proper biomechanics and work methods, personal protective equipment, ergonomics, job specific stretching and exercise as well as educate them on risk factors and anatomy/physiology of musculoskeletal injuries.	$100.00/ hour
Body Mechanics and Correct Work Techniques Training and Education.	This is one on one training in proper body mechanics and work techniques specific to the employees essential job functions. Job specific stretching and strengthening exercises will be included.	$40.00/ session
Ergonomic/ Safety Tool Box Training	Helps to early, identify potential “high-risk” job demands while creating solutions and positive outcomes in preventing injury. Promotes safety, quality and morale while lowering cost.	$80.00/ hour

Industrial Rehabilitation Services

Job Analysis/ Job Descriptions	This analysis will be required prior to any training, testing or educating current and future employees. This is an on-site analysis of daily essential functions and physical demand levels for specific departments. The analysis includes formal weights, measures, frequencies, repetitions and forces required as well as interviews/ interactions with employee to capture all aspects of the job.	$80.00/ hour
Job Placement	Assists employer in returning a restricted employee back to work in a quick and safe manner	$80.00/ hour
Consultation	Perform case reviews and outline plans for future injury prevention. Participate in safety meetings, meetings with management and case managers. Meetings with doctors and coordinate care for employees as needed with difficult cases. Health and wellness.	$80.00/ hour